

LINDSAY SAWYER FAY
Certified Financial Planner

Lindsay is the owner of her family's Financial Planning firm, E. Sawyer Financial, where she works as a financial planner and oversees day to day operations of the firm. She is an active volunteer and is currently one of the Vice-Presidents of the Rady JCC, chair of the Rady Fitness Committee and board members of the St. James Scholarship Foundation. She is a past vice-chair of the Young Associates, past chair of the Winnipeg Commerce Club, former board member of the Jewish Federation, former JPEG chair (Winnipeg Young Adult Division), past JPEG Combined Jewish Appeal Cabinet member & former Winnipeg Jewish Theatre board member. She is also a volunteer moderator on the IVF.ca website dedicated to helping men & women who are having difficulty in building their families.

Her career highlights include being a multiple Manulife Conference Qualifier, the 2008 Vic Savino award winner (first female recipient) and the 2008 Outstanding Associate Advisor award (first female recipient.) Along with her team, she successfully transitioned their 35 year family planning practice in 2013 from founder, Eric Sawyer, as he moved into semi-retirement. The team has continued to provide the same level of dedicated, knowledgeable, client oriented advice that sets up apart.

Lindsay's achievements also include the 2009 UIA Federations Young Leadership Award recipient, 2010 Harry Silverberg Young Leadership Award recipient, and she has been selected to serve as a member of the national young leadership team for the Jewish community in 2013 & 2014. She has given numerous industry interviews in "Dialogue", "Advisor's Edge" & "Forum" magazines and was a featured panelist for the Rady JCC's 2016 Women's Leadership Symposium on "Jumping In - My Journey Volunteering in the Jewish Community."

In her spare time, Lindsay is the Co-Captain of "Team Black" (centre) (GWL Women's Hockey Team), a member of the 2015 Little Mountain Rec League Championship Ball Team (pitcher), and a convener of a rec women's volleyball league (Rady JCC) as well as an avid hot yoga practitioner.
