

BLAKE C. GOLDRING, M.S.M., LL.D., CFA
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
AGF Management Limited

Blake C. Goldring is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of AGF Management Limited. He was named President in 1997, Chief Executive Officer in 2000 and Chairman in 2006. Under his leadership, AGF has grown to be a premier independent investment management company with operations in Canada, the United States, Europe and Asia.

Responsible for developing and overseeing the company's strategic direction, Blake has played a critical role in turning AGF into a diversified investment management firm by leading the company into new directions in wealth management.

Under Blake's leadership the company has expanded its global footprint and business lines, sold and acquired new businesses, recruited top management and grown its assets substantially.

Blake first joined AGF in 1987 from a major Canadian bank where he worked in corporate and government banking. Blake was initially responsible for AGF's Japanese and Asian portfolios and helped set up AGF International Advisors Company Limited in Dublin. He held a series of senior positions including Vice-President for Eastern Canada and Senior Vice-President of Sales and Marketing before being appointed President in 1997.

Blake is currently a Director of the C.D. Howe Institute, a Member of the Business Council of Canada [formerly the Canadian Council of Chief Executives] and the World Presidents' Organization (WPO) and a Leadership Council Member of the Toronto Financial Services Alliance.

He is the Past Vice-Chair and Past Director of the Investment Funds Institute of Canada (IFIC) and is presently a member of the IFIC Ad Hoc Strategic Research Committee. In addition, Blake is Chair, Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, a Director of the Canadian Film Centre and the former Vice Chair, Toronto Symphony Orchestra.

He holds an Honours BA in Economics from the University of Toronto and a Masters of Business Administration from INSEAD in France. He is also a member of the Toronto Society of Financial Analysts, a CFA charterholder and a Fellow of the Institute of Canadian Bankers.

Blake and his wife Belinda have three daughters and live in Toronto.
