

DAN INNES

Dan Innes is a Hip Hop artist from Regina, Saskatchewan who rhymes under the name 'ThatmanDan'. He has been writing rhymes and rapping them since he was 11 years old, out loud and with others since he was 15. Dan's life has featured a wide array of experiences which he draws from to describe universal themes to others through his unique style of individual expression. Dan currently lives in Regina where he works for a non profit youth agency. He has two beautiful children aged 7 and 5 who make his life better each day and happily lives in the same Cathedral area he grew up in.

Dan has had the honour of sharing the stage with such notable artists as B Rich and Joe O'Connor. In addition to those experiences he has shared his words with countless others through hosting a monthly Open Mic for the past 9 years and performing at many more since 2000. Dan has had the pleasure of working with Juno Award winning artist and producer Stacy Hoskin since 2003 on various projects. He has recorded many songs with the guidance of David Roman at Roman Empire Studios in Regina and looks forward to their release.
