

AISHA ALFA, CPC

Comedian and Master of Ceremonies

Aisha was born in Nigeria, is an ex-professional soccer player, represented Korea in the Asian Gaelic Games, knows Pi to 25 Digits and hates bananas. She has lived in 5 countries, visited 6 continents and can do a mean Earth Kitt impression. Upon realizing that her core value was FUN, Aisha began to craft a career in speaking, hosting and entertainment.

Aisha has a long list of credentials having performed at the Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal, JFL42, SheDot and the Break Out Comedy Festival. She has also been seen on such television shows as Degrassi: The Next Class, The Beaverton and Air Farce New Year's Eve Special

The Knowledge Bureau is pleased to Sponsor the DAC 150 Gala where Aisha will be performing her comedy routine and to sponsor Aisha's presentation on "How to be a Hipster".
